How to submit an application

Why Apply for Membership on an Advisory Board or Commission?

If appointed, you will have an opportunity to advise the County Board on policy matters, craft recommendations to the County Board that balance competing views on issues and county policy proposals, facilitate community input on specific issues and develop subject matter expertise.

Most meetings are held monthly at conveniently located County facilities, and the average appointment term is three years.

Successful applicants are appointed at a County Board meeting and are notified of their appointment by the County Board Chair.
