

Women of Vision Award Criteria

WOMEN OF VISION AWARD CRITERIA

Criteria

The following is a description of the point values for Residency, Scope of Activity, and Measure of Impact. The ideal candidate would earn a total of 16 points: 1 for residing or working in Arlington; 5 points for the scope of their activity; and 10 points for impact.

Criteria	Possible Points	Score
Residency	1	X out of 1
Scope of Activity	5	X out of 5
Measure of Impact	10	X out of 10
Total	16	X out of 16

Residency:

Score of 1: Nominee is a resident or works in Arlington.

Score of 0: Nominee is not a resident or does not work in Arlington.

Scope of Activity: Score of 1 – 5

- The passion and commitment of the nominee exceeds job descriptions and/or volunteer position requirements. The nominee will, for example, dedicate extensive time outside normal business hours to realizing a vision for improving the lives, opportunities, and roles in the community of Arlington women. The nominees' contribution through work can and should be considered, however the nominee must have made a contribution beyond and/or in addition to their work requirements in order to receive the highest score in this category.
- Nominee has demonstrated commitment to issues affecting women.
- The nominee has, over time, developed a vision for addressing a clear need or inequity which women experience in our community.
- The nominee has clearly communicated her vision for women and engaged community members and other leaders in order to realize this vision.

Measure of Impact: Score of 1– 10

- The person nominating will provide an objective description of impact using data or measurable evidence if possible, and/or testimony from those served or the extent to which the ideal nominee has directly engaged, served or otherwise had an effect on women or girls. This may include new positions created for women, new or increased opportunities for employment, training, leadership, or other educational programs.
- The ideal nominee's contribution will have not only affected women but also made a lasting impression on the entire Arlington Community.
- The ideal nominee's contribution and/or dedication to improving the status of women will have been consistent over a reasonable amount of time.