

Child and Youth Committee

Seeking Volunteers

The Child and Youth Committee of the Arlington Community Services Board (CYCSB) is seeking to expand and diversify its membership with a goal of having persons with multiple points of view and experiences providing input and feedback about Children’s Behavioral Health services.

The CYCSB aspires to have representation from each neighborhood , civic association and high school in Arlington, with a particular focus on having youth members age 15-20. Students will be provided with community service certificates after a term of membership.

What is the CYCSB?

The CYCSB is a committee within the Arlington Community Services Board (ACCSB). The ACCSB provides the principal forum for residents and consumers of services to review, comment on and influence the direction of those services. The ACCSB acts as an advocate, educator, community organizer and community planner for services. The CYCSB specifically focused on Children’s Behavioral Health Services. Monthly meetings consist of data reviews, updates on services, and feedback from community members.
