Anonymous (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:23	When is the walking tour specifically?
Nate Graham (nsgraham@arlingtonva.us)	6/13/2022 7:26	https://www.arlingtonva.us/Government/Programs/Transportation/Events/Walking-Tour-Arlington-Blvd-Trail-Study-Geo.-Mason-Dr-N.-Jackson-Street (When is the walking tour specifically? )
Anonymous (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:26	Does the scope of potential changes include adding sidewalks where they don't currently exist? Or only widening existing paths?
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:29	Currently there are school busses are too long for some of the tight corners around the elementary school so they block the full road from bikes when making turns
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:30	It would be great to have sidewalks on the Arlington Blvd south service road
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:30	The pathways around McDonalds are so confusing and dangerous that I often cut through the McDonalds parking lot
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:31	The onramp by Goodwill is especially frightening because when you approach the narrow portion of sidewalk by bike going West you cannot see if there will be pedestrians and if you needed to swerve it would be into traffic
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:32	On Curtis train there's sound barriers that are lovely and Mt. Vernon has some water fountains both would be nice
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:32	You did a great job pronouncing it!
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:33	There's often pedestrians on the sidewalk by McDonalds and cars looking to turn into Glebe so you'd need to swerve into the road to stay on the sidewalk
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:34	I'll for sure be at the walking tour! I'm very excited
Nate Graham (nsgraham@arlingtonva.us)	6/13/2022 7:35	https://www.arlingtonva.us/Government/Projects/Project-Types/Transportation-Projects/Arlington-Boulevard-Trail-Study
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:35	Glebe as a whole is very unfriendly for bikes even outside the scope of the trail study
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:36	By bike it's easier to get to Virginia Square or Clarendon than to Ballston even though it's closer because Glebe feels so unsafe
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:37	How does the state/local breakdown work on the Arlington Blvd service roads?
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:40	There's a bike path with an almost 180 degree turn on the north side of Arlington by the bridge that people always are getting off their bikes to take. It also looks like bikers might be cutting through someone's lawn to avoid it

Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:42	The street is N Oakland St (Maryeliz (Unverified) asked "There's a bike path with an almost 180 degree turn on the north side of Arlington by the bridge that people always are getting off their bikes to take. Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:41	The one that takes you to the lower neighborhood by the cementary
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:41	But also yes, the turn onto the Jackson street bridge is too tight as well
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:44	Could you share the interactive map you were talking about?
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:44	Roger that(Maryeliz (Unverified) asked "Could you share the interactive map you were talking about?")
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:45	On the project website the feedback form says "Coming Soon"
Nate Graham (nsgraham@arlingtonva.us)	6/13/2022 7:45	Will be live shortly!(Maryeliz (Unverified) asked "On the project website the feedback form says "Coming Soon"")
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:46	There's also a multi-family yard sale on S Hudson, it's running at around the same time as the walking tour
Maryeliz (Unverified)	6/13/2022 7:46	Thanks!
