Welcome and Attendance

The Community Oversight Board (COB) was called to order by COB Chair Evans at 6:35 p.m. Attendance was taken by voice.

ACPD Report

At 6:68 p.m., Captain Albert Kim gave an overview of complaints that the IPA and ACPD's Office of Professional Responsibility have reviewed and determined that the complaint does not warrant further IPA or COB involvement due to the complaint being exonerated after a review of the digital evidence (typically body worn camera footage) or the nature of the complaint being less severe (thereby warranting resolution by ACPD only).

Investigation Review

At 6:45 p.m. COB members Julie Evans and Celina Shocken (the investigation leads) began the investigation review by giving an overview of a case review of 24CMP-014. The IPA Mummi Ibrahima and OPR Capt. Kim provided their input on the investigation as well. Because there was not a physical quorum, the COB elected to take an advisory vote and defer official voting until the next meeting. COB Vice Chair moved to hold an advisory vote adopting the investigation leads' recommendation to EXONERATE the allegations against both officers for failure to investigate, which was seconded by COB Member Lisa Ortiz. The COB members voted unanimously in favor of adopting the aforementioned recommendations (in an advisory capacity only).
