F. The Commission shall have no jurisdiction over appeals from police officers who have elected to proceed pursuant to the Law-Enforcement Officers' Procedural Guarantees (§ 9.1-500 et seq., Code of Virginia, 1950, as amended) or who have chosen the Police Trial Board for the resolution of their grievance or firefighters who have chosen the Fire Trial Board for the resolution of their grievance. The pay plan and rates shall be determined with due regard to compensation for similar employment in the Washington metropolitan area, and shall compare therewith, and any other factors that may properly be considered to have a bearing upon the fairness or adequacy of the pay plan.

B. The County Board shall not increase or decrease any salaries of individual members of the competitive service but shall act solely with respect to approving both the pay plan and pay system. The County may, however, enter into salary reduction agreements with employees pursuant to a duly enacted employee flexible benefits plan under Internal Revenue Code, § 125. The amount of salary reduction required for each benefit option offered under such plan shall be determined before entering into the salary reduction agreement as to each such benefit and shall be set forth in a table which shall be a part of the compensation plan.

C. The County Manager is authorized to establish bonus programs to address a variety of needs, including retirement, retention, and performance. B. All examinations for promotion shall be conducted by the Director of Personnel in accordance with the personnel rules, and the qualified candidates shall be certified to the appointing authority and all promotional appointments shall be made from among the persons so certified.

E. Appeal from discrimination. Any applicant or employee who has reason to believe that he/she has been discriminated against because of any factor prohibited by § 6-22.D in any personnel action may appeal to the Civil Service Commission as provided herein.

If the appellant is an employee, the procedure for appeal shall be in conformance with the administrative regulations of the County Manager provided that such regulations shall provide for a right of appeal to the Civil Service Commission.

If the appellant is an applicant, the appellant shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard by the Civil Service Commission after filing a written request for a hearing with the Commission. 7. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section, an individual employee may present a personal complaint or question at any time to the county without the intervention of an employee organization, provided that any such organization that is recognized by the county as the exclusive bargaining agent for the bargaining unit in which the employee is a member is afforded an effective opportunity to be present and to offer its view at any meetings held to adjust the matter and that any adjustment made shall not be inconsistent with the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement. Such employee or employees who utilize this avenue of presenting personal complaints to the county shall not do so under the name, or by representation, of an employee organization.

L. Good Faith Bargaining

1. A written request for bargaining must be submitted by the exclusive bargaining agent to the county manager no later than March 1, and negotiations must begin by April 1 and conclude by October 1 of any year where an agreement is sought to be effective at the beginning of the next fiscal year, in order to accommodate the county budget process. Failure of the parties to reach agreement by October 1, shall constitute impasse and trigger impasse resolution procedures under this Section.
 - a. Notwithstanding the deadlines outlined in Section 6-30.L.1, For the fiscal year beginning in July of 2023 (FY2024), requests for bargaining will be accepted by the Manager and considered timely for up to two weeks following recognition of the exclusive bargaining representative by the County.
2. Nothing in this Section requires either party to make any concessions or agree to the other party's proposals.
3. Good faith bargaining shall not include submission of or a response to a proposal that either violates the rights of employees as set forth in this Section, or impairs, restricts, or delegates the authority of the county as set forth in subsection D provided, however, that the County Manager shall, upon request, negotiate regarding proposals addressing the impact of county decisions that substantially impact the general working conditions of two or more employees made pursuant to authorities in subsection D and the procedures the county shall follow as it implements such decisions, and such negotiations shall be governed by N(2)(c). 1. When an exclusive bargaining agent and the county manager's bargaining representative reach a tentative agreement, they shall reduce it to writing and execute it signifying the approval of the bargaining agent and the county manager. No agreement shall be effective or enforceable, however, until:
 - a) a fiscal impact study of the tentative agreement is prepared by the county's Department of Management and Finance;
 - b) the fiscal impact study of the tentative agreement is submitted to the county board, and a public hearing held no later than the November Board Meeting on the fiscal impact of the tentative agreement; and
 - c) the county board specifies by resolution the December Board Meeting its good faith commitment to appropriate funding necessary for the county to meet obligations under the tentative agreement as set forth in the fiscal impact study provided for in this subsection, with the understanding that any such resolution remains subject to actual appropriation. If the board does not resolve to fund any provision(s) of the tentative agreement requiring appropriation, the county manager or the exclusive bargaining agent may re-open negotiations on those provisions which shall be scheduled as promptly as possible with the good faith objective to negotiate provisions that may be acceptable to the board for its consideration within the county's budget approval schedule. Upon presentation to the board of any tentative agreement re-negotiated under this subsection, the board shall consider and specify by resolution as soon as practicable its good faith commitment to appropriate funding necessary for the county to meet obligations under the tentative agreement, with the understanding that any such resolution remains subject to actual appropriation; and

 - ii. the exclusive bargaining agent by ratification in accordance with the bargaining agent's governing procedures and evidenced by the signature of an authorized agent which may be an electronic signature made in accordance with applicable state law.

N. Mediation, Arbitration, Grievance Procedures

1. Mediation.

- (a) Labor-Management Disputes: The county and an exclusive bargaining agent shall first attempt to resolve labor-management disputes informally by discussion between the parties' designees. In the event that the county and the bargaining agent are unable to informally resolve a labor-management dispute, either party or the parties jointly may submit the dispute to the LRA for mediation pursuant to procedures instituted by the LRA.
- (b) Impasse: If after a reasonable period of negotiation over the terms of an agreement there is a dispute over specific issues between the county and the bargaining agent, an impasse may be called by either party and resolution may be sought by submission of those issues for mediation by the LRA or a mediator selected through procedures established by the LRA. The parties shall jointly request mediation within five (5) days of such a declared impasse. Whether impasse is declared as set forth here or triggered by operation of subsection L due to failure to reach agreement by October 1 as provided therein, the LRA or other mediator shall set reasonable deadlines for all steps of the mediation process. Negotiations on other matters may continue throughout impasse procedures.

The parties shall share the costs of arbitration equally.
- (b) Each collective bargaining agreement shall contain an employee contract dispute resolution procedure, culminating in final and binding arbitration. This negotiated contract dispute resolution procedure shall be the exclusive procedure available to an employee of a bargaining unit covered by that agreement unless the employee contract dispute is also a grievable matter under Va. Code 15.2-1507(excluding disciplinary actions such as dismissals, demotions or suspensions), in which case the employee may elect to file an employee contract dispute under the procedures in the collective bargaining agreement, or file a grievance under the procedures guaranteed by VA Code 15.2-1507 and any other applicable state laws. The employee contract dispute procedure and grievance procedure shall be mutually exclusive, and an employee's initial election to file an employee contract dispute or grievance shall be binding and irrevocable at the time of filing.
- (c) Non-binding arbitration, in accordance with procedures established by the LRA, shall be available for resolution of impasses regarding any matters not set forth in subsection N(2)(a) above. In the event that the County does not implement the recommendations or resolutions resulting from non-binding arbitration, the County Manager shall, at the next meeting of the County Board, explain why they have not accepted the recommendation.

In making any decision under the impasse procedure authorized by this subsection N(2)(a), the arbitrator shall give weight to the following factors:
