

Understanding Arlington County's Comprehensive Plan

The Comprehensive Plan guides coordinated development and sets high standards of public services and facilities in the County. It is a decision-making tool for the County Board, the Planning Commission and County Departments. The plan was established in 1960 and originally included five elements. Today, it includes these twelve elements:

